Read the following:—

Report on the state of the season in the district of Cuddapah during the first fortnight in April 1867.

1. Some rain fell in the Pulivendala, Kadiri, and Jammalamadugu talooks.

2. Some indigo had been sown in the northern and eastern sections. The crop was doing well. In the western section, Vaisakham paddy, jonna, and indigo were being sown. The crops were, in general, in good condition. In the Royachoti and Kadiri talooks the paddy crops were injured by hailstones. In the Voilpaud and Madanapalli talooks a portion of the paddy crop was withering from failure of irrigation. In the Royachoti talook the Vaisakham crop had all been harvested. Sugar-cane was being cut and pressed in the Royachoti and Voilpaud talooks. In the Sidhout talook, cotton and lamp-oil seeds had been gathered in to some extent.

3. Fever and ague existed in the Badval, Pulivendala, Voilpaud, Sidhout, and Proddatur talooks, and prevailed in the Pullampett and Jammalamadugu talooks. Cholera existed in the Voilpaud, Sidhout, and Cuddapah talooks, and small-pox in the Proddatur talook. Cattle were suffering from disease in the Badvel, Pulivendala, Madanapalli, and Jummalamadugu talooks.
