Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 13th May 1867.

Tabular Report on a Yeomiah case, &c.—(Continued.)

Recommendation of the Collector, and the grounds on which it was made.

It appears this Yeomiah was granted originally, by the Jaghiredar of Polliemcottah, to one Syed Azum, the father of the deceased, for the office of Khatib in a Mosque within the Polliemcottah, in Chellumbrum talook, the remuneration being two annas and quarter seer of oil per diem. After the resumption of the Jaghire, an annual allowance of Rupees 39-4-3 was granted to him by Government in February 1829 in lieu of the above. The original grantee died in 1838, and his son, the deceased Yeomiahdar, succeeded to the office under an Order of Government, dated 4th February 1839, in Board's Proceedings, 4th March 1839. The grant is for religious service, viz., for reading Kootba on every Friday at the Musjeed; for performing Nimas or prayers five times a day; and for reading Kootba once in the months of Ramzan and Bukreed of the year, and is continuable as long as the duties are performed. The eldest son of the deceased having been absent from the country for the last twelve years, his second son, Syed Hussain solicits the continuance of the Yeomiah in his name. The records of inquiry show that the deceased and his surviving three brothers had been in the enjoyment of the Yeomiah allowance, living in one and the same family, and the present claimant is capable of performing the duties prescribed for the office of Khatib. The Widow, the brothers of the deceased, and the younger brothers of the present claimant, all agree to the registry of the allowance in the name of Syed Hussain, aged 18, and the Collector accordingly recommends that the allowance, viz., Rupees 39½ per annum, be continued in the name of Syed Hussain, and that the arrears due to his deceased father from 1st July 1866, to the date of his demise, be disbursed to him.

1. The Board sanction the continuance of the allowance as recommended by the Collector.

2. The lapse should have been reported with less delay.

3. A copy of these Proceedings will be submitted to Government for information, with reference to Government Order, dated 19th March 1867, No. 656.
