I have the honour to report, for the information of Government, that Mr. Francis Edward Hall, appointed* Assistant to the Collector and Magistrate of South Canara, arrived in this district on the 8th instant, and took the prescribed oath, and made the usual declaration before me this day previously to entering upon his duties.

* "Fort Saint George Gazette," dated 16th April 1867.

2. At the time of Mr. Hall's arrival in this district, I was absent from head-quarters on my Jamabandi tour, and I only returned to Mangalore this morning. The Civil and Session Judge also is not here. Mr. Sturrock, the Acting Head Assistant Collector, has not yet qualified as a Justice of the Peace, and so Mr. Hall could not take the oaths before him.
