Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 19th June 1867.

No. 253. Read the following letter from the Collector of Salem, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Salem, 11th June 1867, No. 29:—

1. I have the honour to request Government will be pleased to instruct me on the two following questions, which have been raised with reference to the License Tax:—

I. Is a Coffee planter, who sells his produce within the district, required to take out a license, that is, does he become liable under the License Tax Act.

II. Is a Government servant, who is constantly in the habit of lending money from month to month on interest, liable? Also is a Mutadar, Polygar, or Ryot so lending money, liable?

2. I have made this reference to Government, as the points raised are of considerable importance to Government in this district.

No. 254. ORDER THEREON, 19th June 1867, No. 1,361.

Miscellaneous.

The Government are not competent to give authoritative interpretations of the law, but the Collector's attention is called to Clause 4, Section
