Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 26th June 1867.

No. 371. Read the following Proceedings of the Madras Government in the Financial Department, dated 25th June 1867, No. 280 :—

Read the following letter from the Collector of Sea Customs, Madras, dated 22nd June 1867, No. 616.

Read also the following Report of the Examiner of Claims.

No. $\frac{2}{31}$

1. The undersigned does not consider that the Proceedings of the Government of India, dated 28th January 1865, No. 485, communicated in Proceedings of Madras Government, dated 21st March 1865, No. 625, Revenue Department, will bear the construction put upon them by Mr. Blair, but that they are in modification of Sections 16 and 17 of the Uncovenanted Civil Service Rules, and allow an Uncovenanted Civil Servant to take the second instalment of privilege leave in the year following that in which he took the first.

2. Mr. Blair may be allowed to take the portion now asked for of the leave granted to him on the 21st ultimo as an instalment.

(Signed) W. DONALD,
Examiner of Claims.

24th June 1867.

1. The Endorsement of the Examiner of Claims will be communicated to the Collector of Sea Customs, through the Revenue Department.

2. The Government understand that Mr. Blair was entitled to one month's leave in 1866, and that he took twenty-seven days' leave in that year, from 13th July to 8th August, leaving a balance of four days unexpended. He now wishes to take leave from 8th July (or one day prior to the expiry of eleven months since return from last leave) to 29th idem, or three weeks. The Examiner of Claims does not object to the grant of the instalment, but disputes Mr. Blair's interpretation of the G. O. G. of India on which he claims to take leave before the expiration of eleven months from last leave.

3. The Government consider that the Examiner of Claims is clearly right in this case. Mr. Blair cannot take more than the four days balance of leave due to him until after 8th July.
