Read the following papers:—

No. 409. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 22nd May 1867, No. 3,165.

Read the following letter from the Assistant Collector of Trichinopoly, to the Acting Collector of Trichinopoly, dated 2nd May 1867.

1. I have the honour to inform you that, agreeably to the instructions of the Accountant General, the sum of Rupees 41-5-2 has been stopped out of my pay, for having overstayed the time allowed for joining my appointment in December last.

2. It is true that the Order ordering my transfer is dated 26th of November, but on a re-perusal of the Order you will see that the Order is passed on a letter of the Collector of Salem, forwarding a letter from me in which I applied that the Order transferring me to my old appointment should take effect from the 3rd of December. The Order was "Ordered accordingly." This, I conceive, was sanctioning my request, and in that spirit I understood it. If I am correct in my opinion, it will appear that, having joined my appointment in Trichinopoly on the 19th of December, I did not overstay my joining leave, and am, therefore, entitled to a refund of the money which has been stopped out of my pay.

3. Should you coincide with me, I beg that you will be good enough to forward my letter.

Memorandum.

Forwarded for the favourable consideration of the Board of Revenue.

TRICHINOPOLY, (Signed) G. VANS AGNEW,
3*rd May* 1867. Acting Collector.

To the Secretary to the Board of Revenue.

Submitted for the orders of Government. The Board have not been supplied with a copy of Mr. Gribble's letter to the Collector of Salem, to which he makes reference.

Referred to the Accountant General for his remarks.

No. 410. From the Accountant General to the Government of Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort Saint George, 22nd June 1867, No. 106.

1. With reference to Endorsement dated 8th instant, on the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, No. 3,165, dated 22nd ultimo, the undersigned has the honour to observe that as Mr. Gribble ceased to do duty at Salem on the evening of 28th November, he must necessarily have his joining time calculated from 29th November, and not from 3rd December, and as he joined Trichinopoly only on 20th December A. M., he has, under these circumstances, forfeited his allowances for three days, the period by which he exceeded his joining time, as shewn in the margin.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 28th June 1867.

2. Mr. Gribble's letter, to which he refers, requesting that his transfer to Salem may have effect from 3rd December, is not recorded in Government Order No. 3,224, dated 26th November 1866.

(Signed) F. LUSHINGTON,
Accountant General.

No. 411. ORDER THEREON, 28th June 1867, No. 1,440.

Miscellaneous.

1. The Government observe that Mr. Gribble, writing on 13th November 1866, requested to be re-transferred to Trichinopoly "after the end of this month," or to be granted leave from 4th December.

2. The Government order complying with his request may very possibly have led him to suppose that the order took effect from 3rd December.

3. Under these circumstances, the Government authorize the Accountant General to pass the three days' pay that have been retrenched.
