No. 128. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 26th June 1867, No. 3,937.

Read the following letter from the Collector of North Arcot, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chittoor, 4th June 1867, No. 137 :—

1. I have the honour to request that the sanction of Government may be obtained for the transfer of the payment of the allowance of Fatma Begum, No. 62, Dehat Inamdar of Pulimadu, from this to the Madras district, where she resides.

2. This Inamdar's allowance was revived under the Orders of Government, dated 28th November 1865, No. 2,959, and the arrears due to her, up to 31st December 1865, were remitted to her through the Treasury Deputy Collector of Madras. As she failed, however, to furnish the usual life-certificate, her allowance for the subsequent months, i. e., from January 1866, remains undrawn, and amounts up to 31st May 1867 to Rupees 42-8-0, being at the rate of Rupees 2-8-0 per mensem. I now beg to request the Board will be so good as to sanction the payment of these arrears when recommending to Government the transfer, of which there is now question.

3. The Inamdar applies for the transfer on the ground that she experiences great difficulty in forwarding her life-certificate on each occasion her allowance falls due.

1. Submitted to Government for their orders.

2. The pensioner Fatma Begum, a Gosha female, did not draw her allowance for several years, and, accordingly, when she claimed it, the arrears that had accrued were withheld as a punishment for her contumacy in having delayed to forward a certificate of identification.

3. The pension, however, was continued. These instructions were conveyed to the Board in Proceedings of Government, Revenue Department, 28th November 1865, No. 589.

4. The Collector now requests that arrears of the pension, amounting to Rupees 42-8-0, that have since accrued may be paid to the Inamdar from the treasury at Madras, and her pension be disbursed to her in future from the same source, as she resides in the Presidency Town. The Board beg to support the recommendation.

No. 129. ORDER THEREON, 8th July 1867, No. 1,517.

Miscellaneous.

Payment of the arrears from January 1866 to May 1867, amounting to Rupees 42-8-0, and the transfer of the payment of the pension to the Madras Treasury, are sanctioned as recommended by the Board.
