No. 558. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 13th July 1867, No. 4,387.

Read the following letter from the Collector of Madura, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 27th April 1867, No. 115 :—

1. With reference to the Board's Standing Circular Order, No. 161, I have the honor to request the instructions of the Board in the following case :—

2. In the event of the holder of a religious Inam, (whether free or assessed with a light Jodi,) dies or flees to another country, and the services for which the Inam has been granted thereby cease to be performed for some months or longer period, whether such case is to be reported to the Board, or an opportunity of renewing the service be given to the heirs of such Inamdar, or, in the absence of such heirs, to other persons interested in the maintenance of such institution and willing to undertake the service.

1. Submitted for the orders of Government.

2. The Board are of opinion that since the passing of Act XX of 1863, the Government have no concern with endowments for religious services, and that, consequently, it rests with the people interested to see that the services for which the endowment was granted is properly performed. This would of course not apply to those personal grants of land or money for subsistence, to which nominal religious services are occasionally attached.

The Government desire that the Collector will report, through the Board of Revenue, the particulars of any cases which have given rise to this reference.
