To,

His Excellency the Right Honourable The Governor of Fort St George, in Council Madras.

The humble petition of Pagadala Chengalraya Naidu, late Dafadar, Arcot Talug, North Arcot District.

Most Respectfully Sheweth,

That your Lordship's poor petitioner humbly craves that the noble government may be pleased to reconsider the orders (no. 807, 19th July 1895) passed in his case, granting him, instead of a pension, an invalid gratuity of 48 Rs at the recommendation of the Accountant General.

That the petitioner entered the service as Talug Jaman in 1852, and rose to the post of a Dafadar in the Arcot Talug in 1877 and continued in that duty until in September 1894 he was forced to retire by Mr. Hauck the Sub-Collector on the mere ground of his having become 60 years old. The petitioner strongly represented to that gentleman that he was still able to discharge his duties, but he turned a deaf ear to all the petitioner's entreaties.

That his service extends over a period of 42 years and the Service Book would would shew that he had all along earned the good opinion of his immediate superiors. He is unable to understand, why he has been given credit for a service of only 25 years and 6 months, and why nearly 15 years have been mulcted from the total period.

That he apprehends that a breath in his service in 1860 might have been taken by the Accountant General, as prejudicing his claims for a pension, but the petitioner humbly begs to submit that the Taluk Records will shew that he was not out of employ for more than 11 months, which according to the Rules cannot tell against him, being a period not exceeding one year.

That under all the circumstances stated above, your Lordship's poor petitioner most humbly craves that the gracious government may be pleased to order, that either a pension be granted to him or that he may be allowed to serve out the remainder of the period required to entitle him for the same.

That for this act of generosity the petitioner, as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

22nd February 1896 }
Tripalikaane }

Your Lordship's most obedient and humble servant.

SUBJECT.

Praying that he may be granted a pension in lieu of the gratuity already sanctioned or that he may be allowed to serve out the period required to entitle him to a pension.

Note

The applicant's service from 2nd May 1852 to 16th June 1868 was not taken into account having been vitiated by dismissal from the public service. There are no records to show why he was dismissed, but the applicant in his affidavit marked with tape in EO 807 stated that the dismissal was due to his having been suspected of receiving some illegal gratification from some repts at the time of Jannabady. - It appears however that he was re-entertained within a year by the same officer who dismissed him; the break can be condoned by the local Govt.; & if this is done, the applicant will be eligible for a pension of Rs. 4/- per m.
