Remarks.—Of the total amount of the allowance, viz., Rupees 1,750, a sum of Rupees 235-12-0 was enjoyed by two females named Mungaramma, cousin of the grandfather of the deceased, and Tirupatamma, step-mother of Venkatakrishna Reddy, father of the deceased, both of whom are dead. Mr. Wedderburn in submitting his Tabular Report to the Board of Revenue, dated 16th July 1861, recommended that the share of the pension, viz., Rupees 1,514-4-0 per annum, only be continued to the name of the minor Rama Reddy, the last holder. The Board were pleased to suggest in their Proceedings, dated 8th August 1861, No. 4,278, and the Government have sanctioned the allowance accordingly to the deceased in their Order, dated 15th October 1861, No. 1,992.

The deceased Rama Reddy, who was a boy, left his mother Ranga Nakamma, who is the only legal heir and successor to the allowance, and who claims that the amount of Rupees 235-12-0, formerly enjoyed by the two females who are dead, should be added to the amount of Rupees 1,514-4-0, making together the total allowance of Rupees 1,750, and continued to her, as the mother of the deceased; and daughter-in-law of the original grantee Narasimha Reddy, to whom the full amount of Rupees 1,750 was originally granted by Colonel Munro, and renewed in the name of her deceased husband, Kavelur Venkatakrishna Reddy, under Orders of Government, dated 10th May 1849, No. 846.

As I consider that her claims to the allowance are justifiable, I beg to recommend that one-half, viz., Rupees 875, of the total allowance of Rupees 1,750 per annum be continued to Ranga Nakkamma, mother of the deceased during her life, from the date of the deceased's death, viz., 1st November 1866, and pay her also the arrears of pension due to the deceased for October 1866.

1. Resolved that the foregoing proposal be submitted to Government for their orders.

2. This is a Polliam pension of Rupees 1,750 per annum. The name of the original grantee was Narasimha Reddy, who died in 1833, and the pension was continued to his eldest son Veeraraghava Reddy. The latter died in 1843, and was succeeded by his brother Venkatakrishna Reddy.

3. Rupees 235-12-0 of this pension have been conferred by the original grantee on two female relations, one of whom had a reversion, and died. The balance Rs. 1,514-4-0, the sum of Venkatakrishna on the death of the latter in 1858. The other female relative Tirupatamma Reddy has left no male issue. Rama Reddy has left no male issue. The family now consists of his widow Ranga Nakamma, Lakshmamma, widow of his elder brother Veeraraghava Reddy, her son Seetaramiah, a boy of ten years of age. The mother, Ranga Nakamma, is the original grantee, and Lakshmamma, Narasimma's maternal aunt, and therefore the persons entitled by the original grant, after the alienations made by the grantee.

4. Polliam pensions are hereditary, being good conduct to lineal descendants of the original grantee, and when the last holder dies, Government apparently confine to the female relatives as much of the allowance as they consider in each case appropriate. In the present instance there are no lineal descendants, but as the family appears dependent on the bounty of Government, the Board recommend that the original stipend, or Rupees 875, be continued to it and divided in equal portions amongst all the female members, the share of each to lapse on death, save that of Venkata Narasamma, on whose death its continuance to her son Seetaramiah might be re-considered.

No. 580. ORDER THEREON, 30th August 1867, No. 2,036.

Miscellaneous.

1. The Government observe that according to the genealogical table submitted by the Collector, the two female relatives of the deceased, Latchamma and Venkata Narasamma, whom the Collector terms "maternal aunts" of the deceased, were the daughters of his paternal grandfather, the original grantee, and therefore so long as Latchamma and the son of Venkata Narasamma are living, it is not the fact that there are no lineal descendants of the original grantee. The Board will call on the Collector for further explanation.

2. It is observed that Latchamma, though not included by the Board in the list of the family, appears to be living, and that Venkata Narasamma, whom they treat of as living, appears to be dead.
