My dear Huddleston,

I confess I did not read the G.O. of Feb. 66 as totally prohibiting the sale of all land within the vicinity of the cantonment. When I was at Ootacamund [illegible] to this effect [illegible] since then [illegible] land would have [illegible] Mr. Egan's land would long [illegible] been sold [illegible] as I read the order strictly, for as long time I refused to sell the land. I did not agree to the sale of land until I had taken the opinions of several persons in Ootacamund, and Mr. Egan and [illegible] and several of the Municipal Commissioners expressed an opinion in favour of his having the land. Mr. Egan applied for two pieces of land adjoining each other [illegible] the Municipality [illegible] to purchase these [illegible] the [illegible] but Mr. Egan was prepared to bid Rs 3000 for the latter [illegible] them. The lands were sold by the Sub Asst Collr.
