Possesses no certificate.	Vrashabha Shetti alias Bhadraya Ballala.	15 7 0	Extract from Minutes of Consultation, dated 15th October 1852.	This was a personal Inam formerly paid by a deduction from the Kistbundy Beriz due on a certain land in the Mangalore talook, but which was subsequently converted into a money allowance, under the Orders of Government quoted in column 4, and brought under regular audit. According to the Proceedings of the Board, dated 11th September 1854, the grant is to be continued to the present incumbent, who is the immediate successor of the late holder Pommakoo Ballalati, and resumed after his death.	2 1	32 2 7	The pension is now due in arrears from August 1865 to August 1867, or two years and one month, because the petitioner did not present himself to receive it until the end of April 1867, when the case was referred for inquiry as to the cause of delay, and also with a view to the identification of the claimant. From the reports received, it appears that the pensioner pleads that he was prevented from presenting himself for payment by domestic affairs. The truth apparently is that pensioners receiving such small allowances as the present are not entirely dependent on them for their subsistence, and are in consequence somewhat indifferent and tardy in claiming them. The identity of the incumbent having been fully proved, and the arrears being actually due, sanction is now solicited for payment thereof.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
2nd November 1867.

1. Submitted for the sanction of Government.

2. The Acting Collector will be instructed to warn the Yeomiahdar that his allowance will lapse to Government, should it again remain undrawn for more than two years without sufficient cause.
