No. 120. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 22nd October 1867, No. 6,882.

Read the following letter from the Collector of North Arcot, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chittoor, 3rd September 1867, No. 247:—

1. I have the honor to submit a statement shewing the extent of land taken up for a spring channel in this district, for which compensation has been awarded.

2. The land was taken up in 1860 in the Shrotriem village of Oacheri, and measures Kanies 11-14-4, assessed at Rupees 40-5-4. The compensation has been settled at Rupees 451-12-9, and the interest on this sum for seven years and eight months, at six per cent. per annum, amounts to Rupees 207-13-2, making a total of Rupees 659-9-11.

3. The Shrotriemdar is also entitled to the refund of the proportionate Jodi paid by him for the land taken up for seven Fuslies, amounting to Rupees 282-5-4, at Rupees 40-5-4, and the interest on this last mentioned amount, calculated year by year at six per cent. per annum, aggregates Rupees 50-12-9, making a total of Rupees 333-2-1.

4. The Shrotriemdar further claims compensation for loss of crops at the time the land was taken up at Rupees 241-6-0 with interest. This claim has been rejected as inadmissible.

5. Under these circumstances, I beg to request sanction for disbursing to the Shrotriemdar of Oacheri the sum of Rupees 992-12-0, and for fixing the future Jodi payable by the Shrotriemdar at Rupees 183-2-10, the present Jodi being Rupees 223-8-2.

6. I should mention in explanation of the great apparent delay, that the claim in this instance was, so far as the records shew, only advanced by the Shrotriemdar in May last year, and that the matter has thus been only under actual inquiry from that time to the end of July last. Had the preliminaries prescribed by the Act been observed when the land was first wanted for public purposes, I should have recommended that the interest on all the items should be disallowed. But as this was not done, the man might have a case to go to Court with, were his demands not fully discharged.

7. The amount of compensation now recommended should, if sanctioned, be paid from Imperial funds.
