Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 21st November 1867.

Read again Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 13th July 1867, No. 4,387, recorded in G. O., 29th August 1867, No. 2,026.

No. 388. Read also the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 5th November 1867, No. 7,237.

Read the following letter from the Collector of Madura, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Camp at Paumbaur, 17th September 1867, No. 258:—

1. With reference to the Government Order, No. 2,026, dated 29th August 1867, communicated by the Board on the 3rd September, I have the honor to report that in the Silamalai village, in the Bodinaikanoor estate, now held under the management of the Court of Wards, several Inams have been originally granted for the support of petty religious institutions. It was in case of two of these Inams, the instructions of the Board were requested. The extent of each of the two Inams, and the name of the institution for which it was granted, are shewn in the margin.

Names of Institutions.	Description of land.	Extent.	Assessment.
		A. C.	Rs. A. P.
Perumal Pagoda... ...	Dry. ...	0 85	1 8 4
Angalammen Pagoda...	Do. ...	0 85	1 8 4

2. The Bodinaikanoor Manager has, on the 4th April last, reported to me that no service has been rendered in either of these institutions for the last six months, the trustee in one case having died leaving no heirs, while the trustee of the other has left the village.

Submitted to Government, with reference to their Order quoted by the Collector.

No. 389. ORDER THEREON, 21st November 1867, No. 2,761.

Miscellaneous.

1. The Government infer from the Collector's present letter that the cases that have given rise to his reference are of a kind in which, were the Zemindar not a Minor, he would take the necessary steps for ensuring the continuance of the service in the temples, as being an appanage of his estate.

2. If this be so, the Manager of the estate, as representing the Zemindar by appointment of the Court of Wards, seems to be the proper person to issue such orders as may be required for the purpose in question.
