Claim to succession to Yeomiah No. 63.	Madura Town, Madura talook, Half Cally Fan-am equal to Anna 1 and Pies 8 a day.	By Mahommed Ali Khan Sha-ban Hezra 1160, A. D. 1747.	Service, making Puja in the Hanu-man pagoda at the site of the north gate of the late Fort of Ma-dura.	Sanjivi Achari, son of the grand-son of the origi-nal grantee. Vide printed list of Yeomiahs as they stood on the 1st July 1856. Date of decease unknown.	Entire.	None.	The Yeomiah was granted for the performance of puja to god Hanuman, at the north gate of the late Madura Fort. On the death of Kuppa Chari, the Yeomiah was continued in the name of Sanjivi Achari, his son, by Order of Government, 22nd Sep-tember 1849. This individual performed the service regularly up to February 1862, when he left the district. In their Order of the 20th July 1863, No. 1,346, the Government permitted the continuance of the Yeomiah in the name of one Alagiri Achari, during the absence of the incumbent, as instructed by him on the occasion of his leaving the district, but on the understanding that the Yeomiah should continue in the name of Sanjivi Achari, the absent incumbent, until the full period of four years, and that the claim of Alagiri Achari should be considered then. From the proceedings held in the case it appears that the service continues to be performed by the abovementioned Alagiri Achari, that Sanjivi Achari is, therefore, recommended that the Yeomiah be continued in the name of Alagiri Achari, the incumbent, who performs the service.

Submitted for the orders of Government, with reference to Government Order, dated 20th July 1863, No. 1,346, and the Board's recommendation that the Yeomiah be registered in the name of Alagiri Achari, who has performed the service attached to it for upwards of five years.
