Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 31st January 1867.

No. 581. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 3rd January 1867, No. 9.

Read the following letter from the Collector of Madura, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 7th December 1866, No. 403:—

Adverting to the Proceedings of the Board, dated the 2nd ultimo, No. 7,937, I have the honor to report that I cannot find any such precedent as that referred to in this district, as similar cases have not to my knowledge occurred; but my recommendation was based on the law of succession and the practice observed among Hindoos. Besides, the pension is granted for the support of the family of the original grantee, and not for that of his collateral and distant relatives, who maintain themselves by other independent means, without getting any share in the allowance.

The Board consider that the succession of the eldest male representative of the family, as desired by the widows of the deceased, he being also the nephew (brother's son) of the deceased, is more in accordance with the principle observed in regard to succession to Poliems, than the arrangement recommended by the Collector, and accordingly resolve to sanction the continuance of the allowance, from the death of the last holder, to his eldest nephew, Bommia Sawmy Dodia Naik, for the support of the family. The allowance was granted in lieu of a resumed Poliem, and declared to be hereditary by Government Order, dated 6th February 1858.

No. 582. ORDER THEREON, 31st January 1867, No. 279.
