Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 28th November 1867.

No. 540. Read the following letter from the Collector of Ganjam, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Chettpore, 13th November 1867, No. 3,469 :—

1. The Acting Deputy Accountant General desires me to shew cause why the salary (20 Rupees) of one "Kotta Jagannadham," Sea Custom House Clerk, Ganjam, should not be retrenched, he not having passed the General Test Examination.

2. This Clerk was employed long before 1859, the year in which the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examinations were instituted, but was thrown out in February 1862, by the operation of Mr. Pelly's revision of Establishments. He was at that time a Karkun (12 Rupees) in the Itchapur talook, and was re-entertained in August following as second Clerk, Sea Customs, Mansurkota, (15 Rupees). Thence he was raised to his present post in July last.

3. I beg to recommend that the slight break in his service in 1862, occurring as it did without any fault of his own, may be declared no bar to his last hard-earned promotion.

No. 541. ORDER THEREON, 28th November 1867, No. 2,831.

Miscellaneous.

The exemption of the man in question from the General Test is sanctioned under the circumstances stated.
