No. 45.
To

THE HONORABLE J. B. NORTON,
Advocate General.

Separate Revenue, No. 2.
Stamps.

SIR,

1. The revision of the Stamp Acts X of 1862 and XXVI of 1867, being now under consideration, I am directed by the Right Honorable the Governor in

Council to request that you will favor Government with any remarks that you may desire to offer as to the working of the existing provisions of the law, and your opinion as to the modifications which should be effected in them, and the additional provisions which appear necessary or desirable.

2. The subject has been already referred to the Honorable Judges of the High Court, the Magistrates of Districts and Cantonments, the Board of Revenue, the Government Solicitor, the Chamber of Commerce, the Trade Association, and to the Superintendent of Stamps, and it is desired to submit all opinions and suggestions that may be elicited, to the Supreme Government, as speedily as

My dear Ellis

I should very much like to write on the Stamp Act, which I think it is contemplated to allow. It contains so much that is of great value, that I should like to be heard on it.

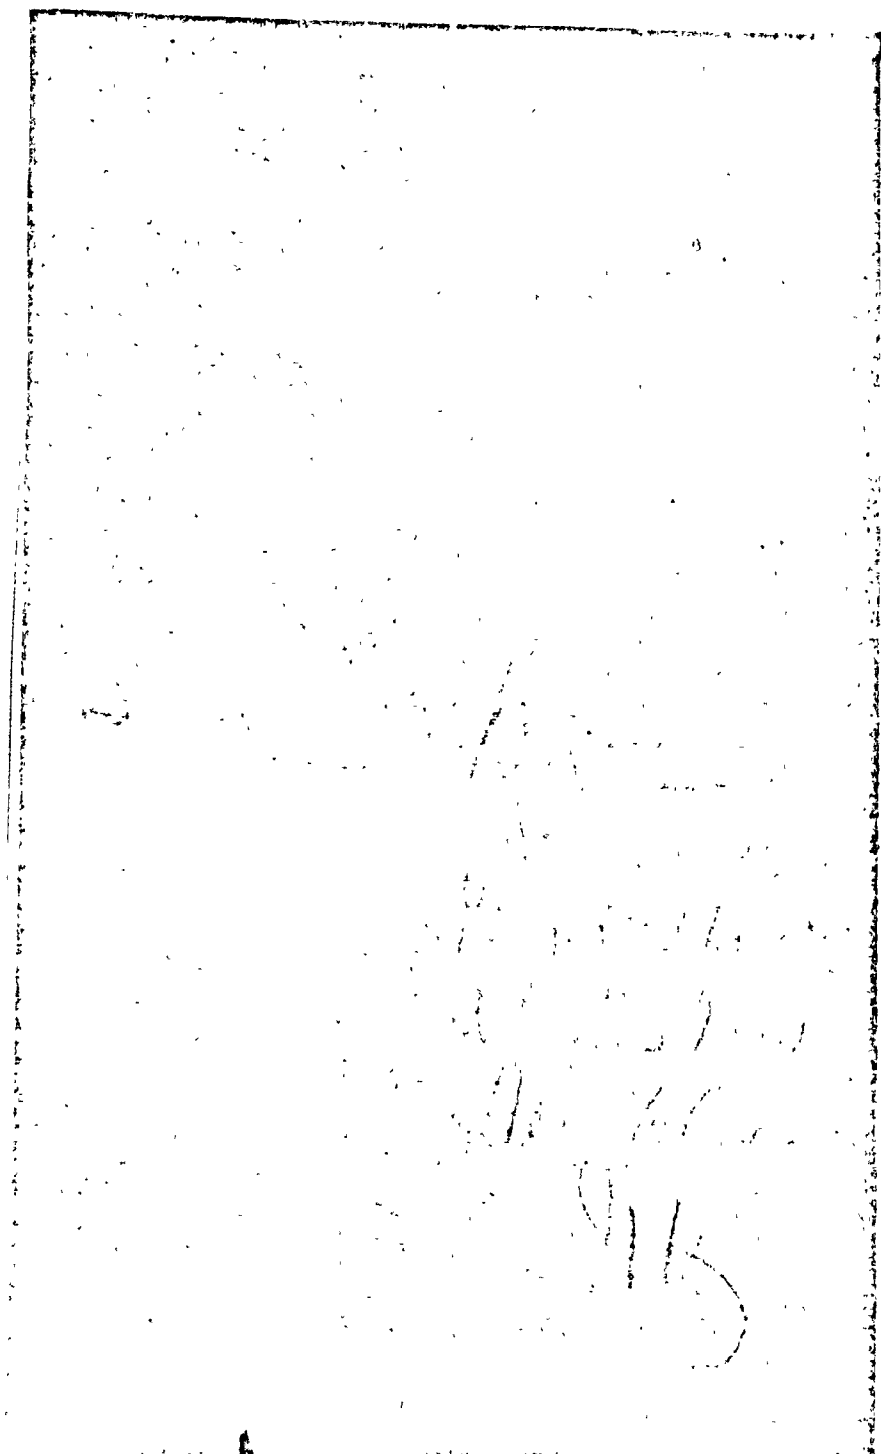

Can you get it referred to me for
