Read also the following letter from the Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, Madras, dated 29th August 1896, No 993:—

With reference to Board's Proceedings No. 3581 mis, dated 18th July 1896, I have the honor to state that, in my opinion, the marginally noted Inspectors are, both in conduct and acquirements, as also from record of their services, the best of the men that could be selected for

1. V. P. Subramoneya Mudaliar 1896
 2. B. K. Santappa
 3. M. Hassan Ali
 4. K. Sathu Rao
 5. Moses Abraham
 6. G. Rungiah Naider
 7. V. Sathambay Devo
- or Mr. Venkataramana Sastri appointment to the post of Senior Veterinary Assistants. Then appear also to be very same men recommended by Veterinary Captain E. H. Hazleton for retention in service with the exception of Nos 506. Vide his letter to the Board, No 831, dated 23rd July 1890. If Stock Inspector M. Venkataraman Sastri does not appear to be suitable from his record of Service, Stock Inspector V. Luthambis Devoo appears to be the next best man; of these 7 men 1st & 3rd have already qualified themselves for the post.

Resolution.

The papers read above relate to the qualifications of the existing Stock Inspectors for posts as Senior Veterinary Assistants, for which the Government of India in its letter dated 17th September 1895 No 1434-19-4, read in the Ill above quoted, suggested that selected Inspectors should be sent to Bombay to be further trained.

2. The Board, in its Proceedings No 369 of 95, reporting on the proposals of the Government of India for the organization of a subordinate staff for the Civil Veterinary Department, stated that, if the proposals of the Government of India were given effect to, it would be ultimately necessary to provide about seven senior Veterinary Assistants for this Presidency. One man already exists, and two of the Stock Inspectors have qualified at Bombay for similar appointments.

3. The Government has, however, agreed with the Board in thinking that it would be inadvisable to attempt to provide the large staff of Veterinary Subordinates which the adoption of the Government of India scheme would require, and to proceed on less ambitious lines. It would therefore appear unnecessary to consider the question of deputing any of the Stock Inspectors to Bombay further, until the final orders of the Government of India be received.

4. It is observed, however, that in the list now submitted by the Superintendent, the name of A. Kammiah Naik, is included in the previous lists, is omitted. This should be explained. The Superintendent also does not appear to have understood that he was required to report only the names of those Inspectors who might be fit for ultimate appointment as Senior Veterinary Assistants. For such posts, highest qualifications are required than merely being the best of the Stock Inspectors, amongst whom there are only a few, as the Superintendent states in his last Annual report, on whom he can depend.

Pending the orders of the Government of India, however, no further action is necessary.
