To

The Resdt in Mysore.

Sir,

In reply to your letter dt 24-9-96 No. 3475, I am directed to inform you that the forest officer nominated by this Govt to serve on the committee appointed to settle the disputed boundary between the Mysore State and the Nilgiri Wynaad is Mr J. Hadfield, the D.F.O. of South Malabar. If, however, from any cause it is found that Mr Hadfield's services cannot be be made available for the purpose, the D.C. for the time being of the Wilpies has been nominated instead. In these circumstances, I am to suggest that the Mysore members of the committee may be directed to get in direct communication with the for the time being Collr of the Wilpies only, who will communicate to further the forest officer that would represent the Govt's opinion in particulars relating to the subject. if necessary 15/11/16.

Note

It is understood that both Mr Hadfield and Mr Douglas are studying the papers connected with the dispute in question.
