The judgment shows that it was a case of deliberate dishonesty, and punished in consideration of the fact that conviction involved disqualification from the public service.

Judgment-

The defendant is a Forest guard at Manithara. He is accused of having misrepresented to the Karji of Jerabadi that he had instructions from Prosecution 1st witness: the forest Ranger of Baguda to take some 12 pieces of unclaimed wood which was kept in his custody and to sell them and of having misappropriated the sale proceeds thereof without sending them along to the forest-Ranger.

2. Prosecution 1st witness Mr. N. S. Werracharyulu Forest-Ranger Baguda deposes that the defendant without his permission and knowledge took 12 pieces of 3 chajo, munda munda wood from the Karji Prosecution 2nd witness on the pretext that he had obtained orders.

3rd Pro² witness Arho maiko Karji of girabadi deposes that defendant having asked him for the wood which had been kept in his custody saying that he had obtained orders from Prosecution 1st witness he gave it to him, and that the defendant sold it to Prosecution 4th witness the highest bidder in the sale. Prosecution 3rd witness Karam Corroborates Prosecution 2nd witness. He is the writer of the receipt given to Prosecution 4th witness. W. 216
