REVENUE DEPT.

The humble review Memorial of Gudi Varisimulu of Dornapadu, Guntur Tq, Krishna District.

May it please your Excellency

- 1 Submitting herewith all the necessary papers connected with the case, your review appellant most humbly begs leave to place once more before your Excellency his poor case for redress and justice.
- 2 The public copies herein enclosed that his Inam was sold unjustly by the combination of the village officers and the Revenue Inspector for the arrears of others.
- 3 And the papers herein enclosed, will also show to your Excellency that he has not been idling away his time since the sale of the land without moving authorities for redress and justice.

4 When it is evident, that there has been combination in the sale of a land, the appellant begs to submit that such a sales deserves to be set aside.

5 From the above-mentioned papers, your Excellency can come to the conclusion that the appellants case is one of those which deserves the special consideration and interference of the Government.

6 To submit to your Excellency, the Government has every power to do justice to men of the appellants Stamp.

7 There is no limitation for the appeal to Government and the law of limitation does not and cannot bar the Government from disposing of Cases in the interests of Justice.

8 To say more, your Excellency has also the power of referring cases to the High Court which are barred by limitation and your Excellency is the supreme appeal authority of the Presidency.

9 Your appellant is certainly barred by limitation to seek redress - in a civil court, having been fighting, all the while on the revenue side with a strong belief that he would be shown justice and relief.

10 At this stage, your appellant has no footing whatever to go to civil court without your Excellency's interference.

11 In all these circumstances your Excellency's appellant a poor man who has been deprived of his Inam given to his ancestors and to him by zamindars and which is his only means of livelihood, most submissively implores your Excellency's mercy to be pleased to refer his case to the High court of judicature at Madras, so that it may be treated as free from limitation and your appellant may get justice. If your Excellency declines to interfere in the matter,

he begs to submit that he is undone

for ever.

To add further, He begs to state that your Excellency will be pleased to call for the record of the enquiry in the year 1884 in the Sub Collector's office.
and do me justice. He begs in conclusion to place himself at the mercy of your Excellency.

19/9/96

For such an act of kindness

He begs to remain

your Excellency's most obedient servant
