Form of leave certificate

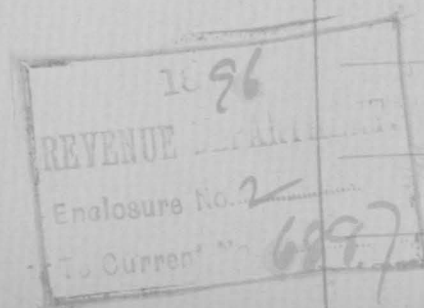

Copy of para 1699 Volume II, A. R. I.

A leave certificate duly completed in English and in the Vernacular on ^{Bengal Form 388} ~~Bombay Form 128~~ is to be given to all ranks of the Native Army (including non-combatants) when proceeding on leave of absence. This certificate is to be presented whenever a man reports himself to military officers or the civil authorities, and will be brought back by him to the regiment. Daroghas, Thannadars, Chaprassies, &c., have no authority to call for leave certificates except under the instructions of Magistrates of districts (para. 867, Section VII).

SIR,

In returning your endorsement No 3678 Miscellaneous, of the 14th September 1896 together with its enclosure, I have the honor, by desire of His Excellency the Lieutenant General Commanding the Forces, to inform you that para 1699, Volume II, A.R.S., requires that the leave certificates of Native Officers and men are to be presented whenever they report themselves to Military officers or the civil authorities, but there is no authority requiring the countersignature of such certificates, though the latter is desirable to show that the regulations on the subject, have been acted upon by men proceeding on leave.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,
W. A. C. Coland.

Off. Dy. Adjutant General.
