TESTIMONIALS

of

A. KAMESWARARAO NAIDU

—oOo—

Certified that A Kameswararow has been a pupil of the Onslow Institution, Chatrapur, since 1868.

The fact that he has held the two scholarships for three years viz the "Forbes" scholarship of Rs 3/0 for 1870 and the "Forbes" subscription scholarship for 1872—73 and 1873—74 speaks for itself. I always found him industrious and persevering, very punctual in his attendance, and obedient to his masters. He was a candidate at the last university Examination (Matriculation) and held a very creditable position in the list of passed candidates at the General Test Examination of February 1873.

Is a very hard working man and attentive to his duties. He was of great use in the Birth and Death Registration Department where he brought up a large portion of arrears single handed. His transfer to the Account Department is very desirable. He deserves promotion.

I have to speak in the highest terms of the conduct and qualification of Kameswararao. So greatly was I impressed with his claims to advancement that I brought him to the Collector's notice on one occasion and got him an increase of salary. I have great hopes of him and trust he will rise.

I have much pleasure in certifying to the very creditable manner in which Arrabolu Kameswararao Naidu has discharged the duties of English Accountant in the Collector's Office at this station. He is very intelligent and as far as my knowledge of his character goes, I believe him to be straight forward and honest. He has passed the General Test and the Precis and Translation (Telugu) special tests. He has also passed the Account Test and the Revenue Test, Lower grade. Although my acquaintance of him does not reach very far back, yet what I have seen of him during my short tenure of service here as Treasury Deputy Collector has sufficiently shewn me that he has the makings of a useful public servant in him. He comes of a respectable family and I need not say that I shall be glad to hear of his success in life as I feel assured that he deserves success. I think him quite fit for the post of Head Accountant of a Collector's Office; and should such a vacancy occur at this station, I would not have the least hesitation in recommending him for the vacancy.

A. Kamaswararao Naidu has conducted the duties of English Accountant with great credit. He is a very smart, intelligent, trustworthy young man, well up to his work and most anxious to do his best and afford satisfaction. He is in every way qualified for the post of Head Accountant,

No. 158

From

H. G. Joseph Esquire
Ag. Senior Assistant Collector
GANJAM.

To.

The Collector of Ganjam
Dated Berhampur 3rd March 1885.

Sir,

With reference to your Proceedings No. 501 dated 2nd March 1885, I have the honor to request that the vacancy caused by the resignation of the permanent Head Clerk of my Office may be filled up by the appointment of the present acting clerk, Kameswararao.

2. He has, I am aware, not had very much Revenue experience; but it is all the more to his credit that he should have picked up the work so quickly and I can fully endorse Mr Mounsey's remarks on this point. The clerk was also spoken of very highly to me by the Temporary Deputy Collector when he handed over charge of the Division to me.

3 I have been myself particularly pleased with what I have seen of his work not only on account of intelligence and ability but still more because I have found his heart in his work, he takes a real interest in all he has to do and feels the necessity for correcting any thing that is perfectly satisfactory without its needing any enforcement.

4 During my recent Maliah tour his behaviour was in other ways markedly good, for when all were sick with fever and all the other clerks useless, he was ready to work whenever the fever did not actually incapacitate him.

5 I am very glad to be able to write so strongly in his favour and I hope you will be able to let me have him as my permanent Head Clerk.

6 I think he has well earned the promotion by his good work in this Office since he has been acting and that this gives him a claim superior to any other.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

[sa] H G Joseph

Ag Senior Assistant Collector

On the second occasion of A. Kameswararao Naidu vacating the post of acting Head Accountant in the Collector's Office at the station it affords me the greatest pleasure to state that the way in which he has discharged his duties for the past three months has only confirmed me in the very high opinion I have already had of his ability as an Accountant. I need not mention that the accounts of the whole District are compiled in this office and it requires a great knowledge of the civil Account and other codes to give satisfaction to the controlling authorities at the Presidency and this I am glad to say Kameswararao Naidu has succeeded to a great extent in doing.

Chatrapur } (sd) Henry L Howell

19th May 1883 } Treasury Deputy Collector

A. Kameswararao has been my head clerk in the Senior assistant Collector's office for eighteen months up to August 1886. He is thoroughly well acquainted with Revenue work in all its details, is one of the most zealous and hard working official I know, and does all his work so carefully that I never had the least occasion to find fault or be dissatisfied. I believe him to be of unimpeachable integrity of character and have always found him worthy of fullest confidence.

A Kameswararao Naidu has been Head Clerk in the Senior Assistant's office during the 7 months that I have had charge of it. He is a thoroughly good worker, accurate and conscientious and can be thoroughly trusted. I had occasion some months ago to recommend him for the English Head Clerk's post in the Collector's office for which he is, I believe, quite competent; but the vacancy was other wise filled up. I hope that he may soon get promotion. I have always found him most willing to work and have been thoroughly pleased with the work returned out.

Through the collector of Ganjam.

Sir,

Hearing that there are a few vacancies in the Deputy Collector's grade, I beg to submit this humble application for one of them.

2. I entered Government service in the year 1874 as a Clerk in the Ganjam Collector's Office, and have put in a pensionable service of 22 years.

3. I have been serving as a Taluk Officer for the last five years and a half.

4. I beg to submit herewith copies of my testimonials so that His Excellency the Governor in Council may be pleased to know how honestly and efficiently I have been discharging my duties as a public servant.

5. I specially beg reference to the following note of Mr. E. C. Johnson I.C.S. late Collector of Ganjam.

REVENUE
Enclosure No. 3
Approved

"Gopalpur"

10 March 1893

"My dear Kameswarar"

"I have much pleasure in placing on record my appreciation of your services as Vernacular Head Clerk, Deputy Tahildar, Tekkali, and Acting Tahildar Chicacole. In all these three capacities you have done your work well and special credit is due to the manner in which you assisted Mr. Andrew in eliciting evidence in cases against DC. Appayya Naidu and A. V. Ranganadham Pantulu, predecessors of yours whose corruption had been a disgrace to the District.

"In bringing to book the frauds connected with the land cess returns in the Tarka Zemindari, you also did most excellent service.

"This work cannot but have drawn upon you the illwill of many persons of some influence; and I trust that should they ever try to make matters disagreeable to you, you will meet with proper support from your official superiors.

"Yours very truly
(Signed) Evans C. Johnson"

6. The Government is aware that both DC. Appayya Naidu and A. V. Ranganadham Pantulu were convicted in the Sessions Court and eventually dismissed from service.

7. I had to discharge a more formidable task in detecting the frauds committed by the Tarka Zemindars. I had to tour frequently through out his Zemindari for more than a year, collecting numerous receipts given by the Zemindar to his tenants and other evidence.

The Zemindari is situated at a distance of 24 miles from Tekkali, my head quarters as Deputy Tahildar and of 50 miles from Chicacole, my head quarters as Tahildar. I had consequently to stay away for several nights in his Zemindari, and as the Zemindar was aware that the object of my tour was to detect frauds committed by him, I had to do this at the risk of my person. The Zemindar and an official of his were convicted of the offence of cheating the Collector of Ganjam by the Principal Assistant Magistrate; and their conviction was upheld by the District Court on appeal. The District Board thanked me for the services rendered by me in this direction in its Resolution of the 25th February 1893, a copy of which is appended to this humble application. This is as yet the only public recognition of my service in the Tala affair.

8. The services I rendered in connection with settling by aid of State loans were brought to the Board's notice by the collector more than once (vide para 13 of his letter embodied in Board's Proceedings No. 97 Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture dated 12 February 1892 and para 10 of his letter embodied in Board's Proceedings No. 367 dated 17 May 1892 in the same department).

9. Referring to my work in the Chikankole Taluk, Mr. Andrew, then Principal Assistant Collector Ganjam, wrote as follows in his Proceedings of the 28 September 1892:-

"The acting Tahsildar has had heavy work since he took charge in clearing off arrears and in getting things to right; and the undersigned is glad to say that he has worked most energetically and satisfactorily, and has effected great improvement."

Mr. Partridge wrote on the 31 December 1893:- "The acting Tahsildar has been working hard since I have been here, and done his best, I consider."

10. The Berhampur Taluk was in a chaotic state when I took charge of it in February 1894; and Mr. Rice, the present acting Collector of the district is aware of the work I have done in bringing it into order.

11. In conclusion, I respectfully beg to request that the Government will be graciously pleased to favour me with the promotion prayed for in consideration of my ^{humble} services.

I beg to remain
