From the Collector of Ganjam, dated 4th September 1896,
Dis.No.1327/Eng.

With reference to para.10 of G.O.No.1173/L., dated 25th June 1896, I have the honour to point out that the Government was pleased to observe in para.1 of its order No.77/Revenue, dated 6th February 1895 that until the time comes for making the registration of births and deaths compulsory, the only means of improving vital statistics is for Collectors to insist on the Karnams doing this part of their duty correctly and to impress on Divisional Officers and Tahsildars the importance of their personally supervising the work of Karnams in the matter. The Board also submitted a proposal in its Proceedings No.506 dated 30th November 1894 in favour of compulsory registration. I regret

2. G.O. 476-7
21-9-96 that I am unable to offer any practical scheme of reform.

2. As regards Zemindari and inam villages, in which the registration of vital statistics is more defective than in Government villages, some improvement may be expected on the introduction of the Proprietary Estates Village Service Act.

ORDER No.1895 L.Mis.dated 14th October 1896.

Recorded.
