Read again letter from the Collector of Tinnevelly, dated 12th February 1867, No. 92, recorded in Board's Proceedings, dated 19th February 1867, No. 1,029.

Read also the following letter from the Superintendent of Marine, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Madras, 22nd February 1867, No. 661.

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of Proceedings of the Board of Revenue of the 19th instant, No.—, and to state that it appears to me advisable, under the circumstances brought to notice by the Collector of Tinnevelly, that the steamer "Godavery" should be retained at the disposal of the Superintendent of Pearl Banks for a year longer.

Ordered that the foregoing letters be submitted for the information and orders of Government, in continuation of Board's Proceedings dated 30th January 1867, No. 659, and with the Board's recommendation that, under the circumstances stated by the Collector, the Superintendent of Pearl Banks may be allowed to retain the steamer "Godavery" for another year.

No. 118. ORDER THEREON, 7th March 1867, No. 561.

Miscellaneous.

1. The Government sanction the retention of the steamer as long as required for purposes connected with the Pearl Oyster Banks and Nursery.

2. It is observed that the proposal to return the steamer to the Godavery emanated from Captain Phipps.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 19th February 1867.

Read the following letter from R. K. PUCKLE, Esq., Collector of Tinnevelly, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 12th February 1867, No. 92:—

In reply to the Board's Proceedings, No. 659, dated 30th ultimo, I have the honour to inform you that I have just heard from Captain Phipps, who has returned from an examination of the oyster beds off the Madura coast and in the Paumben channel; the condition of the former he describes as unsatisfactory, but oyster spat is deposited on the latter; 2,500 oysters were brought from a pearl bank of Jaffna, and deposited in the Tuticorin nursery alive; Captain Phipps deprecates the removal of the steamer at this crisis, and requests to be allowed to retain it for another year, and if not emergently wanted at Cocanada, I beg that this request may be granted.

Forwarded for the remarks of the Superintendent of Marine.
