Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 9th March 1867.

No. 175. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 28th February 1867, No. 1,240:—

Read again letter from the Collector of Nellore, dated 23rd January 1867, No. 9, recorded in Board's Proceedings, dated 30th January 1867, No. 646.

Read also the following Memorandum from the Acting Deputy Accountant General, Madras, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 6th February 1867, No. 5,432.

Vide your Proceedings, No. 9, dated 30th ultimo.

The undersigned has the honor to state that the pay of the Accountant's post can be given to Vengu Pillay, only upon the sanction of Government, as his passing the Deputy Collector's test cannot be accepted in lieu of that for an Accountant, for which post an entirely different test is prescribed.

(Signed) W. G. RAYNOR,
Acting Deputy Accountant General.

1. It appears from the previous correspondence* on the subject of the above letters, that on the death of Mr. Bates, the late Salt Deputy Collector, in July 1866, Mr. Plunkett, the Head English Writer in the Collector's Office, was appointed to act as Deputy Collector, and in accordance with Proceedings of Government, dated 7th January 1867, No. 40, he drew the pay of the appointment for the whole time he so acted.

2. During Mr. Plunkett's employment as Deputy Collector his own duties as Head English Writer were performed by Mr. D'Silva, the Head Accountant, the work in the Account Department devolving upon Vengu Pillay, the second Accountant.

3. The Board agree with the Collector in thinking that the pay of these acting appointments should be drawn by the individuals who have filled them since the date of Mr. Plunkett's appointment as Acting Deputy Salt Collector. Vengu Pillay, however, not having passed the test required for the post in which he has been acting, (although he has passed that prescribed for Deputy Collector and Magistrate,) the Deputy Accountant General has intimated that special sanction of Government is necessary to enable him to draw the pay of the appointment.

4. Under the circumstances, the Board beg to recommend the case for the sanction of Government.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 30th January 1867.

Read the following letter from J. W. B. DYKES, Esq., Collector of Nellore, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 23rd January 1867, No. 9:—

1. Adverting to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 10th instant, No. 161, communicating the Order of Government, directing that Mr. Plunkett be considered as Acting Salt Deputy Collector from the date of Mr. Bates's death, I have the honour to inform you that, in consequence of Mr. D'Silva's services having been availed of as English Head Clerk, the work in the Account Department devolved upon Vengu Pillay, Acting Second Accountant. Should the Board approve, I would pay him the salary of the English Head Accountant and so on as regards the others who have been acting on this occasion; but as Vengu Pillay has not passed the Test for that appointment, the Accountant General might object to pass his salary, and I, therefore, beg the favour of the Board's orders in the matter.

2. Vengu Pillay passed in 1865 the Examination prescribed for Deputy Collector and Magistrate.

Forwarded for the Accountant General's remarks, with reference to the Government Order quoted by the Collector.
