SIR,

I am directed to forward herewith, for the order of the Govt. of India an extract from a letter from the Secy. Director, Madras Ry., dt 5th June 1896, 18938, in which approval is given subject to the sanction of Government, to a request made by Mr. E. R. Ross, Asst Traffic Manager, that his service with the G. I. P. Ry. prior to his joining the Ry. might be allowed to reckon towards second furlough, so that he may be considered eligible for six months furlough after three years service or twelve months after six years service. Mr. Ross entered the service of the G. I. P. Ry. on his arrival from England in December 1888 & continued in the employ of that Co. until the 30th June 1893. He joined the Madras Ry. on the 1st July 1893.

J. Had

5. Had Mr. Ross joined the Masca Ry in his arrival in India in December 1888 he would have been entitled to a first furlough of twelve months in December 1888.
 Under the Masca Ry. Service regulations (printed at page 62 of the Masca Ry. Statute Book & working estimates for the half year ended 30.6.96.) Mr. Ross will not be entitled to a first furlough of twelve months until July 1900, or until 17 years continuous service with the Company.
 If the concession now asked for is granted he will however be enabled to take 6 months furlough in July 1896
 1897
 1898
