Read the following letter from the Collector of Bellary, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 19th February 1867, No. 33 :—

1. The building lately occupied as a District Munsiff's Court at Tadimurry, in the Talook of Anantapur, having been reported to be in a dilapidated state, and the Inspector of Schools of the Division, the Superintendent of Police, and the Superintending Engineer, having stated that they do not require the same for their respective department, I beg that it may be permitted to be sold by auction.

2. The original cost of the building was Rupees 1,000, and it is reported that it may probably realize Rupees 400, if sold. It was not included in the List, dated 17th October 1864, forwarded to the Accountant General, owing to its then being occupied by the District Munsiff's Court, which has been since abolished.
