Reference No. (Petition) dated 2nd September 1899

In the village of Kalyanapuram in the Tanjore Taluk of the Tanjore District, there is a charitable inam measuring 9 cents and assessed at rupee 0-14-0, which was granted for the support of a Nandavanam (flower garden). The Collector reports that for the last forty years there has been no flower garden on the land which has been cultivated with wet crops. A notice calling upon the inamdars to revive the charity within six months has proved ineffectual, and it ^{further} appears that the land has been sold to another individual who desires that a ryotwari patta may be issued in his name. In these circumstances the Collector recommends the resumption of the inam; the Board supports this recommendation and submits it for the sanction of Government. The amount of the assessment being very small, the Board considers that it may be credited to Government as no charity can be kept up with the aid of it.
