4- Statement of Sura Sembarambakkam of Sura Sembarambakkam

I have no objection to the taking of my land S. No. 1 measuring 35 Cents in the said village for Railway staff quarters.
I request that compensation at the rate at which I have purchased it viz Rs 60 for 42 Cents for the land, cost of the well if taken up and value of trees on the land may be paid for one S. No. 4 stand registered in the name of Venkatas Chetty.
This land was purchased by my mother Fatma Bibi in 1880. She was enjoying it from that time. She died last year.
The land is in my possession after the death of my mother. I have three younger brothers and we all live in the same family. We are the only heirs to our mother. The sale deed in respect of this land is lost. I shall obtain a copy from the Registration office and produce it before the Deputy Collector. I have no objection to the Railway department taking up the land measuring 12 Cents.

I request that due compensation may be paid to me. The amount entered in the sale deed may be paid to me as compensation.
