I am directed to request the sanction of the Government of India to the appointment of an additional Assistant Locomotive Superintendent on the South Indian Railway on a salary of Rs 350 per mensem rising by annual increments of Rs 25 per mensem to Rs 450.-

2. The Locomotive Superintendent reports that the existing staff of officers consisting of one Deputy and two Assistants is insufficient, ^{as} inasmuch with the Deputy in charge of the office, and the two assistants in charge of the Northern and Southern sections of the line, he has not an officer to place in sole charge of the workshops at Regapolam. The Agent concurs in the views regarding the Department in question being short-handed especially in the want of officers availing themselves of leave.

3. It is ^{therefore} proposed to promote Mr. S. A. Imboi, the Mechanical Draftsman, appointed under the sanction conveyed in your letter No. 2294 B, of 3rd Aug. 1892, to the post for which sanction is ^{now} asked, ^{and} that he could have charge of the Drawing Office as well as of the workshops and thus render unnecessary, at least least for some time to come, the separate appointment of a Mechanical Draftsman.

4. The appointment has received the Board's approval.
