PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 23rd November 1866.

Read the following letter from R. K. PUCKLE, Esq., Collector of Tinnevelly, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Tuticorin, 14th November 1866, No. 511:—

The Accountant General has refused to pass the salary of Veerabadra Pillai, Sub-division Serishtadar, from the 26th September last, the date fixed by Government for Veerabadra Pillai's retirement. Veerabadra Pillai is anxious to serve a short time longer, and it would be inconvenient if he were pensioned just now, as the Acting Sub-Collector has had no time to gain any local experience; under these circumstances, I have the honor to request that Veerabadra Pillai may be allowed to serve until the end of January, when I will submit, for the Board's approval, the name of the person who may appear best qualified for the post.

1. The Collector will quote the date of the Government Order to which he refers as fixing the time for this man's retirement.

2. All applications, relating to the subject of previous correspondence, should furnish a clue by which to trace it.
