SIR,

Miscellaneous.

* 15th January 1867, No. 88.

1. Adverting to the remark made in your letter marginally* noted, in reference to item No. 2 of the Revenue Statement of fresh charges for July 1866, I am directed to explain that the sum of Rupees 520-12-0, therein entered, represents the salary and allowances payable to Lieutenant Freeth as Superintendent of the party of Surveyors employed in mapping the stations on the Neilgherries.

2. Lieutenant Freeth belongs to the Madras Survey Department, but has drawn his pay since September 1865 from the Coorg Budget as Superintendent of the Survey of Coffee estates in that territory. He was temporarily transferred to the Neilgherries for the work in question when operations in Coorg were stopped by the south-west monsoon, and it appears from a recent letter† from the † Dated 30th March 1867, No. 440.

Accountant General, that the total charge incurred on account of this Officer's pay and allowances for the period he was so employed on the Neilgherries, viz., from 16th June to 10th September 1866, amounts to Rupees 1,536-1-8; for which charge, under the circumstances now explained, I am directed to request the sanction of the Government of India.

3. Sanction is also requested to a further charge of Rupees 66-15-10, which has been incurred on account of extra remuneration‡ to Mr. Starr, the Office Assistant of the Superintendent of Revenue Survey, who was temporarily placed in charge of the work, on Lieutenant Freeth's return to Coorg, from 15th September to 25th October 1866.

‡ At Rupees 50 per mensem.

4. No charge was entered in the July Statement referred to above on account of the Surveyors, as they were merely detached for the work from No. 1 party working in Coimbatore District.

5. The Proceedings of Government of 17th February 1866, No. 425, directing, for reasons therein stated, that the stations on the Neilgherries should be mapped on a large scale, with other papers bearing on the subject of the present reference, are herewith forwarded for the information of the Government of India.
