Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
11th April 1867.

No. 170. Read the following :—

CIRCULAR ORDER, No. X. OF 1867.

STANDING No. $\frac{355}{1}$

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 2nd April 1867, No. 2,084.

1. In the Board's Proceedings, dated 30th August 1866, No. 6,193, Collectors were requested to state, with reference to the recommendation of the Collector of Malabar to close all Revenue Offices, including the Treasuries, twice a month, whether they would prefer giving a half holiday every Saturday, or one full holiday in each month. The replies from the several Collectors have been received.

2. The majority of the Collectors are in favour of one full Saturday in a month, while a few prefer a half holiday every Saturday. The Collector of Vizagapatam is the only Officer who states that no monthly holiday at all is required. The Board have given their consideration to the subject, and have come to the conclusion that the most convenient arrangement will be to close all Collectors' Offices at 2 P. M. on Saturdays. If the Presidency system of granting one whole holiday in lieu of these half holidays were introduced into the Provinces, it is feared that it might cause inconvenience to the public.
