Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 16th April 1867.

No. 264. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 8th April 1867, No. 2,200 :—

Read again letter from the Collector of Madras, dated 5th March 1867, No. 49, recorded in Board's Proceedings, dated 11th March 1867, No. 1,497.

Read also the following letter from the Collector of Madras, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated on Circuit at Trivallur, 16th March 1867, No. 57.

With reference to the Board's Proceedings of the 11th instant, No. 1,497, I have the honour to state that there are no passed Salt Candidates in this district, and that, therefore, if the Board still disapprove the appointing either of Mr. Smith's nominees, the only alternative will be to advertize for passed candidates from other districts.

1. As the Board's authority is limited under Government Order dated 9th September 1865, No. 2,167, to sanctioning nominations of unpassed persons to officiate for six months, the letters above recorded will be submitted to Government, with the Board's recommendation that the nomination of Annasawmy Pillay and Mahomed Yacoob to be Superintendents of the Vadasamanjay and Vallen Salt Stations respectively, may be sanctioned on the condition of their passing the test at the next examination. It will be observed that these persons, though not qualified under the Examination Rules, are of some experience in the Salt Department.

2. The Board suggest that, in order to obviate frequent references to Government, they be authorized to sanction the employment of persons not qualified under the Examination Rules on the condition of passing at the first examination that occurs after their nomination, when good cause is shewn for the indulgence, and that such sanction be held to have effect until the result of the examination may be published.

No. 265. ORDER THEREON, 16th April 1867, No. 884.

Miscellaneous

The proposed appointments are sanctioned on the condition stated. In extension of the order empowering the Board to sanction the temporary employment of unpassed candidates for periods not exceeding six months, the Government authorize them to make such arrangements on good cause shewn, to stand in each case until the results of the next ensuing examination are published.
