Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
16th April 1867.

No. 276. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 15th April 1867.

Read the following letter from the First Assistant to the Board of Revenue, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Madras, 13th April 1867 :—

1. The Board of Revenue, in consideration of my long service under Government, dealt most liberally by me in granting me six months' leave of absence on private affairs, with the view of enabling me, during that period, to test my chances of success at the Bar. That leave expires on the 15th instant.

2. I have now the honour to submit my respectful request that, as a special case, and in consideration of my long and faithful service of nineteen years under Government, the Board of Revenue may be pleased to recommend to Government that I may, under the terms of the Orders of the Government of India in the Financial Department, dated 4th June 1864, No. 542, be permitted six months' additional leave of absence without pay.

3. My object in submitting this request is that I may thus continue in the service, with the view of my counting towards pension, should circumstances, in the next six months, permit of my obtaining an appointment under Government in the line of my present profession.

1. Forwarded for the favourable consideration of Government.

2. The Board observe that, under the Notification quoted by Mr. Scharlieb, the local Governments are authorized, in addition to the usual leaves, to grant extraordinary leave without pay, but with retention of office on good cause being shewn. Mr. Scharlieb has served the Government with credit to himself for many years, and the Board consider that he may well be granted the leave desired under the circumstances stated by him. They are perfectly willing that he should retain the appointment he holds in their Office for a further term of six months.

Referred to the Examiner of Claims for report.
