Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 17th April 1867.

No. 295. Read the following letter from the Accountant General, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort Saint George, 9th April 1867, No. 8:—

1. I have the honour to bring to the notice of Government that the vacancy caused by the death of the late Mr. Bates, Deputy Collector, Nellore, having been filled up by the appointments made under date the 18th December last, Mr. Plunkett's appointment as Acting Deputy Collector, sanctioned in Government Order dated 7th January last, No. 40, ceased from that date; and that as that gentleman continued to act at Nellore up to 12th February, he was in excess of the authorized number of Deputy Collectors from 18th December 1866 to 12th February 1867.

2. Similarly, Mr. E. Hewetson, who was appointed to act as Deputy Collector of the fourth class, on probation, on 23rd June 1865, vice Davasegamoney Pillay, on other duty, has been in excess of the authorized number of Deputy Collectors from 1st January last, the date on which Davasegamoney Pillay resumed his duties in the Revenue Department, on the termination of the special duty upon which he was employed. Mr. Hewetson still continues to do duty at Coimbatore.

3. The authorized number of Deputy Collectors having thus been exceeded, this department is unable to admit the salaries of the above-named gentlemen.* I beg, therefore, to bring the circumstance to the notice of Government, and to request their orders on the subject.

* Mr. Plunkett.
,, Hewetson.

No. 296. ORDER THEREON, 17th April 1867, No. 900.

Miscellaneous.

1. The Accountant General is authorized to pass against the savings in the Revenue Budget any excess charge incurred in the last official year by the temporary excess in the number on the list of Deputy Collectors.

2. It is observed that at present the number is not in excess of the sanctioned establishment, and Mr. Hewetson is to be considered as having continued in the post of Acting Deputy Collector, uninterruptedly.

3. The Accountant General will in future bring to the notice of Government the fact of the number having become in excess of the sanction by any appointment, or by the return to duty of any absentee, immediately on its occurrence.
