1. Before applying to Government, I thought it advisable to refer to the Inspector General of Ordnance and Magazines and ascertain whether there existed any objection to the transfer of Ordnance Artificers to the Survey Department. I do myself the honour to enclose Colonel Simpson's letter in reply to mine of the 27th March last, and to solicit the sanction of Government to the employment of seven Ordnance Artificers in this department.

8th April 1867, No. 104.

2. With hardly an exception, the Ordnance Artificers attached to the Survey have proved most valuable and well-conducted men.

From the Superintendent Revenue Survey, to the Superintendent Gun Carriage Manufactory, dated Chepauk, 27th March 1867, No. 496-66.

1. Having been requested by Captain Dring, Paymaster 49th Foot, to make application for the services of his brother, Ordnance Artificer J. Dring, I have the honour to request you will be so good as to forward this application for the favourable consideration of the Inspector General of Ordnance and Magazines.

2. I beg further to say that as vacancies for Surveyors exist in the Revenue Survey Department, I shall be very glad to have six other Artificers transferred for employment in it, if their services can be spared.

From the Inspector General of Ordnance and Magazines, to the Superintendent Revenue Survey, dated Fort Saint George, 8th April 1867, No. 104.

1. With reference to your letter No. 496-66, dated 27th March 1867, transferred to this department by the Superintendent Gun Carriage Manufactory, I have the honour to inform you that I have no objection to Ordnance Artificer Dring and six other Ordnance Artificers (to be selected by the Superintendent Gun Carriage Manufactory) being placed at your disposal for employment in the Revenue Survey.
