No. 116. Read the following letter from the Collector of Coimbatore, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George; dated Coimbatore, 29th March 1867, No. 22.

In November 1864, Terumalay Moodelliar, an Accountant in my office, was appointed Deputy Tahsildar and Sub-Magistrate of Avenashy in this district, on condition that he should pass the Special Test Examination in 1866. He accordingly attended the Examination in August last, and had to pass in three Tests, viz :—

II B. Judicial Test, Criminal, lower grade.
III B. Revenue Test, General, lower grade.
VIII B. Precis Writing Test, lower grade.

He has been successful in Tests III B and VIII B (vide Supplement to the Fort Saint George Gazette noted in the margin). In Test II B he did not succeed, and he now requests to be allowed to retain his present post, on condition that he passes it this year.

Dated 8th March 1867, pages 2[3]A and 44A, No. 294.

2. Although Terumalay Moodelliar has failed to pass the Test, I consider that his practical knowledge of his Magisterial duties is very fair. My Acting Head Assistant, under whom Terumalay Moodelliar is working, says that he is energetic, and likely to become a good officer. He is ranked amongst the best of the Sub-Magistrates in the Head Assistant's Division; and from what I know personally of Terumalay Moodelliar, I do not hesitate to endorse Mr. Galton's opinion. Terumalay Moodelliar is intelligent and hard working; his division is in a very good order, and during the time he has been in charge of it there have been no complaints of any kind against him, nor have I had occasion to find fault with his proceedings.

3. Under these circumstances, I beg strongly to support Terumalay Modelliar's application, and request that Government will be pleased to sanction the arrangement. His services extend over a period of ten years, and during that time he has always borne a good character. He is also, as I have, I believe, already remarked, a member of a respectable family.

Transferred to the Judicial Department for disposal.

Secretary to Government, R. D.
