To,
W. Huddleston Esq
Secretary to the Government
Madras.

Sir,
As requested in your Official Memorandum dated 10th September 1867, I have the honor to forward by Banghe, a packet containing Tobacco seed of Uddasendur & Peseakalane, the former marked A consists of 3 varieties, the product of which is stated to be best suited for smoking & chewing, while that of the seed marked B affords an excellent material for snuff. The celebrated Trichy -mopoly Cheroots are made of the former Tobacco.
The seed marked B was purchased for Rupees 2-...; that marked A was given by the Ryots who refused all payments & said they did not sell it.

I have the honor to be

Sir
