PETITION

To His Excellency The Governor of Madras.

The humble Appeal petition of Viswanatha Pillai retired Sirkar Karaman Chattram village No 193 of Sijya Rakhavapuram, Sinnerelly District. Most respectfully sheweth: - that while the petitioner, as an appointed Sirkar Karaman of the said village, was transacting his official duty from an early period of his life as a prescribed salary of Rs 51 per annum, his pay fell in arrears from February 1879 to December 1894 that the pet, finding his petitions to the immediate authorities concerned on the question of arrears of pay have not been endorsed lawfully, appealed against the decrees to your honour dated 16-1-96 that in this pursuance with the appeal petition your honour has been graciously pleased to endorse thereon No 1272 directing the Revenue Board to review the matter that had been disposed of by them for want of due stamps. (Record No 272.)

Ever since that the petitioner has not received any information effecting a disposal of his case that therefore he humbly requests your honour to be graciously pleased to take this matter into your honour's benign consideration and to issue an order sanctioning the due payment of pay in arrears

thus enabling the petitioner to support his family and removing them from the indigent circumstances under which he now labours.

From which act of grace the petitioner shall as in duty bound ever pray
