In July last, the Resident in Travancore and Cochin reported the death on the 29th April 1897, of Ravi Varma Raja of Chirakkal Cherungal family, who ~~was~~ lived in Travancore and was in receipt of a Malikhana allowance of Rs 1000 per mensem from the Resident's Treasury. As regards the continuance of the Malikhana, the Resident stated that the deceased's brother, Udaya Varma Raja had applied to him for the transfer of the allowance and that it was reported by the De of Travancore to be that to the Estate. A draft order was thereupon put up sanctioning the continuance of ^{the} allowance in the name of the Vajra Rered to be the note was added by the office in which a precedent was quoted to show that the allowance in question was not liable to reduction on the occurrence of a lapse.

The Secretary however, having ordered that all the old papers on the subject should be collected.

These were ~~subsequently~~ obtained from the old record office and submitted with a note in which it was pointed out at some length how the allowance in question did not seem liable to reduction now.

In the meantime, however, the Collector of Malabar also reported the death of the same malikhana pensioner, and added that it was clear that the heir by the deceased both from the Travancore Resident's treasury and the Malabar treasury ~~was~~ ^{are} to be conti-the same person, it was thought that before passing orders on the Resident's Commendation, the Collector's report might be awaited to see if the person recommended by the Collector is the same as the one already reported by the Resident.

The Collector's tabular stateceived and it will be seen that the individual in whose name the Collector recommended the registry

Resident.

that the orders of 1848 under
