REVENUE DEPT

RS

To

His Excellency the Right Honorable
the Governor of Madras.

Most Honored Sir,

The humble petitioner in 12 years service in discharge of Govt. duties without any least mistake the Tahsildar has turned to make good of the post owing to the misfortune of the petitioner to his opposite parties, duly discharging the petitioner from the service.

2 Soon after this happened the humble petitioner, when appealed to the District Collector, the petitioners 2d Son died a day previous to the date of hearing. Hence the limitation barred by a day.

3 When the petitioner appealed immediately to the Revenue Board owing to the negligence of petitioners Vakeel the petitioners petition was discharged. The petitioner has submitted his petition to along with the order received from His Excellency's office. The humble petitioner now prays to bring to the notice of His Excellency that the Revenue of the Village in the year

1883 Rs 1750 and odd was raised by the exerts of the petitioner during the petitioners service of 12 years to Rs 3550. A reference to the Govt accounts will satisfy His Excellency 4. The humble petitioner therefore now prays that His Excellency the Governor in Council will be pleased to order the restoration of the post to the petitioner either direct from His office or through any of His Lower officers.
