The Editor has apparently included in the revised estimate for establishment (under head pay of the clerk on Rs 150. The clerk was however suspended on 1st March. There might be some other explanation however. Hence the draft.

Note

As it is distinctly stated in the column of explanatory remarks that the Head Clerk on Rs 150 was transferred to the Land Revenue Dept of the Board's office on 1st March 1897 no portion of his pay can be debited (in the current year) to 'District Munsifs'. It is therefore suggested that the allotment against Establishments in the revised estimate for the current year may be reduced to Rs 360 and the necessary alterations made in the column of "number" & in the detailed heads.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Read—endorsement the Editor of District Manuals, Fort St. George, dated 8th December 1897, No. 826.

Abstract.—Submitting to Government the budget estimate of the District Manual office for the year 1898-99.

Read—Telegram from the Editor of District Manuals, Ootacamund, dated 13th December 1897.

Abstract.—Stating that the provision for the establishment should be Rs. 510 and 360, respectively.

Order—No. 1060, Revenue, dated 17th December 1897.

Miscellaneous.

As it appears that the Head Clerk on Rs. 150 was transferred to the Land Revenue Department of the Board's office on 1st March 1897, no portion of his pay can be debited in the current year to "District Manuals." The allotment against establishments in the revised estimates for the current year will therefore be reduced to Rs. 360 and the necessary alterations made in the column of "number" in the detailed head.

2. The budget estimates as altered above will be transferred to the Financial Department for sanction.
