His Excellency
the Governor
in Council, Madras.

The humble memorial
of the village officials of the village of Nenduballi, Bapatla
Kistna District.

Respectfully sheweth,

(1) that the clubbing of the village No 52 Nen duballi with 55 Appikatta was proposed by the collector;
that they petitioned the Board of Revenue praying that it was fit to be kept as a separate village and if it should be united at all, it was better to unite it with the village of Karlapalem than with Appikatta.

(2) our petition was referred to the collector to be disposed of, who in his endorsement Dis no 5202

of 30-11-96. said that the clubbing already contemplated could not be interfered with. Both the endorsements are herein enclosed.

(3) the amount of Land Revenue of the village at present is Rs 2600. with a chance of being doubled or tripled in case Poondla project should come into a working order.

(4) the villages proposed to be clubbed do not adjoin each other but are separated by two Agraharams the distance between being not less than two miles and a sketch herein enclosed will show the position of the villages.

(5) the conditions of the village noted in paras 3 & 4 are not consistent with the rules of clubbing proposed under Sec 20 of the Madras Act III of 1895.

(6) the only apparent to be that it is uninhabited or (Béchirak.) Ten years ago a village was built; but it was washed away by floods as the place selected happened to be a low one. The villagers sought for a locality of higher level which the Board of Revenue kindly pleased to sanction but before it was apportioned to individuals D.P.W. made pits all over the site for bricks & tiles, and so the site became useless for village site. Many ryots and village officials are now ready with their materials if only a village site be shown to them.

(7) The Tahsildars who were consulted about this clubbing gave their opinions against it.

(8) Out of the Pattadars of the village who are

Dr. W. S. J.

For which act of kindness they shall
as in duty bound
ever pray to Almighty for your Excellency's prosperity and long life. 9 26-5-97.
