Sir, In reply to your reference on G.O. 788/97 of 20-4-97 and reminder dated 4-5-97, I have the honor to submit that the Tahsildar of Hoysale caused the necessary enquiry to be made by the Revenue Inspector in the presence of the Karmam of the village in the Mysore Province.
 2. In his report the Revenue Inspector while admitting that a great portion of the extent has been encroached upon by the British, says that an extent of 3 cents of the British territory has been included within the limits of the Mysore territory.

3. This agreement was not made in the presence of the Amildar of Molakal Maruva as required in the Residents letter.

4. As there has been encroachment both by the British and Mysore authorities upon one another's territories and as the village Boundary has to be altered I think it advisable that the negotiation should be conducted by the District Surveyor in the presence of the Tahildars of Hospet and Molakal Maruva.

I have accordingly issued instructions to the Tahildars of Hospet to arrange for a speedy agreement and report the result as early as possible.

I have the honor to be
