W. P. Austin Esq I.C.S

Collector of Sea Customs

Sir,

I beg leave to submit that when a list of persons qualified to be Deputy Collectors was submitted from this office for the last time two years ago, my name was sent up without any recommendation, as Mr. Turner who was acting for you had just then joined. I request that you will be good enough to recommend me now for a Dy Collector's place, as I understand there will shortly be several vacancies among Deputy Collectors.

I beg to say that I am a Master of Arts of the Madras University in Physical Science. I headed the list in the B.A Examination of 1885; and I have passed all the tests necessary for a Dy Collector. I am also acquainted with Surveying practically and theoretically.

I have been continuously in Govt. Service for nearly 12 years, of which, however, only about 7 years count towards pension.

Through the friendly assistance of the Assistant in Charge, Mr. [unclear] [unclear]

TESTIMONIALS.

T. RANGASWAMI AIVANGAR was a student of this College for four years. His University career has been a remarkably successful one, as he was seventh in the 1st Class of the Matriculation Examination, thirteenth in the 1st Class in the F.A. Examination and first in the 1st Class in the last B.A. Examination. He has been a free scholar during the whole of his College course and has gained prizes every year. He was a very good second in the Physical Science part of the B.A. Examination (the first man beating him by one mark only), and from my own observation I can certify that his knowledge of this subject is both extensive and accurate. He was also one of the best English scholars in his class.

He is quiet and gentlemanly in his manners, and has always borne an excellent character.

A man of his attainments is, I think, sure to distinguish himself in any position in which special ability is called for, whether as a teacher or otherwise.

Principal.

T. RANGASWAMI AIVANGAR, B.A., was a student of this College for four years. His distinguished position in the Bachelor of Arts Examination of this year, namely, first in the 1st Class, is itself sufficient evidence of his attainments and habits of study. And I have only to add that I have always noted him as thoughtful, modest, ever attentive to his work, and thoroughly well-behaved. I wish him every success in life.

English Lecturer.

Mr. T. RANGASWAMI AIYANGAR has performed his work duties to my entire satisfaction. He is a very intelligent and well-educated young official, worthy of promotion.

PROCEEDINGS of the Board of Revenue (Separate Revenue), dated 3rd November 1893, No. 577.

* * * * *

The Board having for sometime had in view the laying down of a more precise scale of wastage allowable in blending and reducing operations in distilleries and warehouses, to secure this end M.R.Ry. T. Rangaswami Aiyangar, M.A., the Testing Officer at the Madras Custom House, was requested, in the Board's Proceedings read again above, to conduct a series of experiments and to report, in detail, the percentage of contraction in bulk when spirits of various strengths are reduced to the authorized issue strengths. The letter read above is his report on the subject.

2. The report is very interesting and the tests have evidently been conducted with care and ability.

FROM

THE HON'BLE DEWAN BAHADUR

S. SRINIVASARAGHAVA AIYANGAR, B.A., C.I.E.,

TO

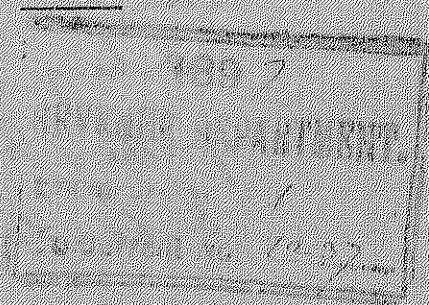

THE HON'BLE MR. J. D. REES, C.I.E.

MY DEAR SIR,

The bearer Mr. T. Rangaswami Aiyangar, M.A., has asked me for a note of introduction to you and I have much pleasure in giving him this letter.

He is a very intelligent man, took a 1st Class degree in the Arts Examination. He has a thorough knowledge of Chemistry and Physical Science and his general attainments are of a high order. He has now for some years held a responsible post in the Madras Sea Customs House. And his work there has elicited the special approval of the Collector and the Board. If you are on the look out for an efficient assistant here is one.

I may also add that he has excellent manners and is entirely trustworthy.

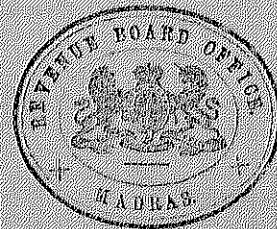

I beg to enclose a printed copy of the testimonials granted to me by those under whom I served, or with whom I came in contact. I have served Government in several Capacities, and I am now, by your kindness, holding the situation of Superintendent of Imports and Exports on Rs 150-10-200 (drawing now Rs 170) which, as you are aware is an executive office not inferior in importance and responsibility to that of a Tahsildar.

I shall feel ever grateful if you will kindly recommend me for a Deputy Collector's place.

I beg to remain
Sir

Your most obedient servant
J. Rangaswami aiyangar
