The peti. complains that Muhammad Mohiuddin Hussain, Dy Tahsildar of Thummagola Division compels merchants of villages which he may visit on circuit, to give him articles de graine etc discount without his paying for them. If they refuse to part with the things he has them charged fine & punished for nuisance. He gets his office peons to cook for him. He compels villagers to supply him with ghee. While on circuit he asks Brahmans to lend him the use of their houses. If they refuse he has them severely thrashed and if they comply with his request he pollutes the houses by cooking mutton etc therein. He compels Govt servants to do his private work. He compels merchants to sell grain etc cotton considerably lower than the market rates. He takes one Capeyya with him on his circuit & takes bribes through him. He ravishes the potter women who carry water to his house. When he enters a village he insists that drums should be beaten

and dancing women should dance.
He collects a bribe of a Rupee or two from each house he in a village he visits & threatens to assess the house owners to income tax if they don't pay. He takes loans from merchants and disposes in their favour any cases they may have in his Court. As the Dy Colly is also a Muhemmadan the above facts are not noticed. The Ryots has brought these to the notice of Govt. for such action as it may see to called upon to take in the matter.
