against no punishment such as dismissal, reduction, suspension, fine or compulsion to resign or even the slightest punishment possible.

3. The petitioner merely represented his grievances to the Deputy Commissioner who mercilessly accepted the same as his resignation. 4. Then upon the petitioner's as also his superior's representation that it was not a resignation, the Deputy Commissioner reconsidered his case and ordered his reinstatement with directions also to submit the necessary application.

5. The petitioner accordingly obeyed his orders and was in receipt of a reply that there were no vacancies then.

6. The petitioner reminded the Deputy Commissioner but with no reply.

7. The poor petitioner thereupon appealed to the Board, who as already stated showed no notice.

8. The petitioner therefore humbly begs to be excused to submit that the principal points for your Excellency's gracious consideration are only the following:—

a) whether

a) whether or not the Deputy Commissioner ordered the petitioner's reinstatement and communicated the same to him?

b) whether or not the Deputy Commissioner replied to the petitioner that there were no vacancies—

c) if on the affirmative is not the Deputy Commissioner to blame for not having reinstated the poor petitioner?

9. The petitioner therefore most humbly begs to request that your Excellency will be graciously pleased to take a favorable view of the poor petitioner's pitiable case, show him mercy and be also pleased to graciously order the petitioner's reinstatement, who cannot afford to give up his appointment after a series of delays. The petitioner humbly begs to remain, your Excellency's most obedient humble servant
